

Melissa Albergotti

Melissa serves as the Upstate South Carolina Market Manager for the Bank of America Local Markets Organization. In this role, she is responsible for business integration, strategic planning, coordinating and leveraging of the bank's local philanthropic contributions, managing events and sponsorships, and facilitating relationships with community and opinion leaders.

Melissa has 13 years of experience with Bank of America. During her tenure, she led the Enterprise Strategy & Initiatives team that supported the Market President and Local Market Delivery (LMD) divisions. She also served as the LMD Strategy and Business Support Manager and as the South Carolina Market Manager.

Previously, Melissa served as a strategy, marketing and initiative management consultant for clients across the country. She has also enjoyed extensive marketing, branding, communications and executive leadership experience at foundations, non-profit organizations and educational institutions. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of South Carolina, a Master of Science from South Carolina State University and has completed postgraduate work at Clemson University. She is a 2011 graduate of Leadership South Carolina.

Melissa currently serves on the board for Artisphere and Chapman Cultural Center. Over the course of her career, she has served on 23 non-profit boards chairing six of those. In addition, she has shared her love of marketing by serving as faculty for SC Bankers School.

“The arts inspire me! They strengthen the social, educational, and economic fabric of a community. I’m honored to join the board of Chapman Cultural Center which plays a vital role in making Spartanburg a vibrant, healthy community.”
